Festival Art Selling Procedure	The Arts Center handles all processing of sales during the Outdoor Arts Festival at the Arts Center “Buying Tent”. Guests “shop around” through exhibits and collect Purchase Cards from Artists. Each artist is given 20 purchase slips at the beginning of the Festival. Each Artist is responsible to note their own name, product sold, cost, and customer’s name and contact information on each Purchase Card. Each artist is assigned a “unique” buying code which needs to be written by artist on each Purchase Card. This “unique” number is how the Arts Center tracks the sales of each individual participating artist. Buyers bring their Purchase Cards to the Arts Center’s Buying Tent when ready to pay for purchases. Sales tax is added at Buying Tent. Purchase Cards are stamped PAID by the Arts Center. Arts Center keeps the white copy of the purchase card. Buyers receive a cash register receipt and the yellow copy of the purchase card stamped PAID by the Arts Center. Buyers return to corresponding Exhibitors to pick up purchases, give the stamped yellow copy of the purchase card to the Artist and keep the cash register receipt for their records. Stamped yellow copy of Purchase Card is kept by Artist as proof of sale.
Festival Purchase Methods	Outdoor Arts Festival sales are by cash, check (with proper ID) or credit card (AMEX, MasterCard, Visa) made payable to the Arts Center Killingworth.
Sales Tax	Connecticut sales tax is not added by Artists. The Arts Center collects sales tax from buyers at the Buying Tent to remit to the State of Connecticut. Therefore, artists do not need a Connecticut sales tax registration number to participate in the Festival.
Commission	Arts Center Killingworth retains a 20% commission on the full sale price (before state sales tax) of all artwork sold during Arts Festival Weekend.
Payments to Artists	Arts Center Killingworth issues a check payment to artists for work sold at the Arts Festival (less commission and sales tax) on or before June 25, 2018.
Artist Parking	Artists can park their vehicles near the Town Green to unload. After unloading, each artist must move their vehicle to the Essex Town Hall at 29 West Avenue, Essex, CT 06426 for free parking. Artists will need to walk back to the Town Green (less than 10 minute walk).
