

Portfolio Development for Art Schools

Emma- for Savannah College of Art & Design

Julia-for Bard College--was admitted

During these one-on-one two-hour sessions participants and their art instructor will investigate what each student's specific Art Schools are looking for and how to achieve an art portfolio which will increase their chances of admission.

They will improve problem solving to create versatility and depth in their portfolio.

Clarify the requirements for the schools of interest in and create the assignments accordingly.

Review and improve skills like shading, coloring, composition and basic design.

Show development i.e. show sketches that work toward a final drawing or painting/assignment.

Have 10 pieces of art that show a good range of their skill set.

$40.00 per hour

$80.00 per session

3 to 5 2-hour sessions may be necessary dependent upon the students' needs

To schedule portfolio development session email barbara@spectrumartgallery.org